

MEREL CAPPAERT

VISUAL ARTIST

As an artist, Merel Cappaert is mainly self-taught and has her own approach to – and definition of – art.

Her approach will always be wherever her emotions lead her.

Drawing inspiration from her personal life, her environment and past experiences, ... give an insight into the mindset of Merel as a painter.

MY CANVAS

I specialize in acrylic paint on canvas, papier-maché and floral – colorful themes.

While I've been training in different mediums, I found a deep connection to floral, colorful paintings. I love how they bring so much of my essence to the audience. They tell a story, before even I know what the story will be...
